[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT. 22

Troops Ordered to Paris.

TOURS, Sept. 21.—The government has ordered all the troops in the country to converge on Paris.

It is rumored that the Prussians have entered Orleans.

The following dispatches were received by the Ministry:

Prussians Repulsed.

EPINAL, Sept. 20.—Toul has been again attacked. The Prussians were repulsed and their guns dismounted.

It is reported that the Prussians investing Paris have been defeated on the Plains of Meudon, and suffered heavy losses.

Strasbourg to be Destroyed.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—German forces occupy Nemours.

It's said Gen. Werder threatens to utterly destroy Strasbourg if it does not surrender.

Paris is entirely shut up. All communication is cut off, except via Berlin.

Prussians Capture a Redoubt.

An official dispatch from Prussian headquarters states that a redoubt with seven guns, before Paris, was captured.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The complete investment of Paris was accomplished yesterday. The French troops have been driven back. The capture of outworks with seven cannon was executed with little loss.

TOURS, Sept. 21.—Gen. Werder has refused to sign any more safe conducts for inhabitants of Strasbourg. A general bombardment of the city will commence immediately.

Number of Men under Arms in Paris.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The number of men under arms in Paris is stated at 438,000, including 180,000 from the Provinces.

The Reds of Lyons more calm.

The Reds at Lyons are becoming more moderate. The appeal to their leaders from Rochefort had a great effect.

It is announced to-night that the heavy batteries of Strasbourg have been silenced. No signs of surrender.

More Fighting—Peace Negotiations.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—King William reports to the Queen that the investment of Paris is now complete. The French advance on the north of Paris had been repulsed with a loss of 7 guns and 2,500 prisoners.

Prussian defeats are obscurely reported as having occurred at Athis and Meux.

Negotiations at Meux are proceeding hopefully. The general principles are already arranged by Bismark and Favre, and the details are now under discussion. Thus far the only question is who can ratify on the French side.

The American ambulance corps is of incalculable service at the seat of war.

The line of communication between London and Paris is reopened.

A dispatch from Berlin says a constitution is preparing for the security of German unity and arranging the formalities for proclaiming Frederick Emperor of Germany.

Dispatch from Tours.

TOURS, Sept. 22.—The Prussians have cut the Orleans railway, and are now occupying several points along the line of traffic. The Prussians menace Orleans.

The bronze statuary of Paris has been melted up to supply the besieged with cannon.

TOURS, Sept. 22.—Nothing definite has been received from Paris to-day. There is great activity among troops here. Many are leaving with all possible haste. The railway service is still irregular.

Prussian Official Dispatches.

MARSEILLES, Sept. 21.—The Municipal Council has voted a war loan of ten million francs.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—German forces have occupied Nemours.

A dispatch from the King to the Queen on Tuesday, says the French abandoned their position near Pierreville, north fort, St. Denis, at the same time the Prussian Bavarian corps crossed the Seine near Villeneuve, attacked three divisions under command of Gen. Vinoy on the heights of Sceaux, and captured seven guns and many men. Fritz directed the movements.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The Crown Prince informed the Queen yesterday by telegraph from Versailles, of the investment of Paris from Versailles to Vincennes. The French troops have been driven back.

A dispatch from Royal headquarters at Meaux, of the 20th, says the complete investment of Paris was accomplished yesterday. The King reconnoitred the fortifications on the northern side of the city.

German Feeling on the Annexation of French Territory.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A correspondent at Berlin states that the Republicans of Germany continue to agitate against the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine with increased animation in all their journals, and public gatherings.

Military circles of Germany demand without any reflection of consequences, that Alsace and Lorraine, Metz and Toul, be given up by the French and annexed to Germany. They also urge with equal disregard of consequences, Prussian occupation of Luxemburg, giving French Flanders to Belgium, Savoy to Switzerland, and Nice and Corsica to Italy. They will not submit to the interference of neutrals. Neither party propose the wholesale dismemberment of France, but ask for sufficient guarantee to be given Germany against the future aggression of France. They indicate that guarantee should take the shape of incorporation of Alsace and Lorraine and the dismantling of the fortresses of Metz and Strasbourg.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The line of communication between London and Paris is reopened. Dispatches from Berlin report that a constitution is preparing for the security of German unity. Herr Delbruck is arranging the formalities for proclaiming Frederick Emperor of Germany.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 22.—British diplomats arrived yesterday, en route to the headquarters of the King of Prussia on an important mission connected with the peace negotiations to be agreed upon.

Occupation of Rome by Italian Troops.

FLORENCE, Sept. 22.—A contingent of each division of the Italian army occupy the city of Rome. The remainder went into camp outside the walls. The Papal troops on capitulating laid down their arms. The Papal legion has gone to Civita Vecchia, there to await the completion of of arrangements now making to transport them to their several countries. The Italian loss in killed and wounded before the city was trifling. The people of all Italy are enthusiastic over the accomplishment of Italian unity.

A Manifesto from Napoleon.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—It is understood that Napoleon is preparing a manifesto to the French people. The members of the late Senate and Corps Legislatif will probably assemble at Limoges.

Senator Morgan Accepts the Mission to England.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—It is again reported that Senator Morgan has accepted the mission to England.

Movements of the Prussians—Revolt in Algeria.

A dispatch from Tours says the Prussians have cut the Orleans Railway and now occupy several points along the line. The Prussians menace Orleans.

A general revolt has occurred in Algeria. The Chasseurs De Afrique have gone back from Marseilles.

Negotiations between Bismark and Favre are not progressing beyond the question of guarantees that the Constitutional Assembly shall accept conditions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Nothing has been received from Paris to-day.

Senator Williams to be Offered the Office of Solicitor General.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Now that it is definitely known that Senator Williams will not return to the Senate it is said that the President will tender him the position of Solicitor General of the United States. This office was created during the last session of Congress, but has never been filled.

Illness of Attorney General Akerman.

A report comes from Georgia that Attorney General Akerman is in very poor health and is thinking seriously of resigning his position.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1870.

HATE THAT NEVER DIES.

Davenport stirred up the Democratic bile again this morning with a concurrent resolution, inviting Gen. W. T. Sherman to visit the Capital during the session, and acknowledging his great services in the cause of Liberty and Union. The old blood that used to boil so with rage and hate—the old copperhead article—when Sherman was "marching through Georgia," began at once to bubble. Grant, of Polk, opened the guerrilla skirmish against the proposition, with one of his characteristic speeches, denouncing Gen. Sherman as the burner of cities, destroyer of property and abuser of women and children. Mr. Olney had offered an amendment to strike out the words of the resolution, "Hero of Atlanta," and to supply their place simply with the title, General of the Army. Grant opposed this, and declared himself in favor of a square vote on the question of the heroship of the man who had burned the towns and devastated the land of our brethren in the South. Mr. Olney, no doubt, offered the amendment with a view to remove an expression which might be offensive to the Democratic sensibilities; but finding that there was a disposition on the part of several Democrats to oppose the resolution in any event, he withdrew the amendment. Mr. Amis, the hero of the anti cue long hair-head shaving bill, offered an amendment to the designation of Gen. Sherman, embodying substantially the denunciations of Mr. Grant. Several other amendments and motions were offered by other Democrats evincing opposition to the resolution, and deep-seated hatred of Gen. Sherman. It was the same old feeling which was manifested by the simon pure Democracy during the war, when Gen. Sherman was punishing their Southern friends, the rebels. It is clear that the Democratic hate of Union men and soldiers is of that quality which can never die. Finally, after several hostile motions had been submitted, the resolution with the amendments pending was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, with instructions to report to-morrow morning. If it come back then, it will doubtless be in the form of a substitute, which will make no mention of Gen. Sherman as a hero, or of his services to the country. I can hardly think the Democracy will utterly refuse to recognize the presence of Gen. Sherman, and in some manner, to invite him to the Capital; but I am prepared to believe that the greater part of them would prefer to make the terms of invitation such as could not be accepted without an abandonment of self-respect. The experiment of lionizing Gen. Crook was not altogether a success. As he had never contracted the habit of being captured by the enemy, the ambuscade laid by the Democracy for him, was a failure; and now, Democracy is not over-zealous in the business of doing honor to Union Generals.

THE BENTON COUNTY CONTEST.

In the Senate, this morning, the Benton county contested case was taken up in Committee of the Whole. A portion of the testimony for the contestant had been read before the committee yesterday. Little heed, however, was given to the matter, several Senators absenting themselves, and others being asleep or very near it. The members began to find it irksome, and this morning the Democratic members determined to be rid of the case. Accordingly, the Committee of the Whole agreed to report the case back to the Senate with a recommendation for its reference to a select committee. The Senate adopted the report of the committee, and Messrs. Brown of Baker, Brown of Marion, and Hendershott, were appointed the special committee. The upshot of the case will be a majority report in favor of admitting the contestant, Strahan, and that report will be adopted, while only that portion of the evidence submitted by Strahan will ever see the light, through the action of the Senate. The case is very much like trying a case upon the testimony only of the plaintiff, on the ground that the Court is getting tired of the investigation. It might be interesting to know by what process Mr. Burch, for instance, will come to an intelligent conclusion as to the rights of the contest. He stated this morning that he had tried the day before, at first, to follow the points made by the contestant and to understand the grounds upon which they rested; but that he had soon got lost and had given up the job. This was his argument in favor of referring the case to a special committee. He wants somebody to study out for him and tell him how to vote. The case of Mr. Burch is not a singular one, however. I make no doubt that several other Senators got as hopelessly lost as he did; and they too will greatly prefer the old Democratic way of thinking just as their leaders tell them to. It is so much easier, so much more a saving of intellectual effort, and so much more a way of securing unity of action, as to commend itself with irresistible force to the Democratic mind.

A MISCUE ON THE ANTI CUE BILL.

Amis, of Lane, is in tribulation and the Whang Doodie mourneth. Hocus pocus hath done it. The bill to abolish caste, has become itself cast away, on the technicalities of parliamentary juggling. The bill was up to-day on second reading, subject, of course, to amendment, commitment, etc. Several amendments were offered calculated to make it more perfect and effective. Dunbar, of Marion, moved to strike out the word "male," so as to make the prohibitions apply equally to he or she Chinamen. He stated his reason for offering the amendment to be that to prohibit only the males from wearing ques of long hair, was clearly an oversight or else it was an exhibition of such partiality on the party of the Democratic friends of the bill in favor of she Chinese as is not found in our law in favor of Caucassian women. He thought if it were desirable to drive the Chinaman out, it must be equally so to drive out the women. Amis thought this was an attempt to kill his bill with ridicule. He would not sit tamely and see his bill thus slaughtered. He had introduced it in good faith, and would support and defend it to the last with the utmost sincerity. No measure of his should be killed with ridicule while he had a seat on this floor. Dunbar's amendment was finally voted down. Mr. Olney offered an amendment in substance prohibiting any male person over fifteen wearing loose flowing breeches or blouse, wooden shoes, or the shirt outside of the breeches. He said that if we are to abolish pagan signs of caste it would be better to include everything in the bill. The articles of apparel and the Chinese mode of wearing them were as much the signs of caste as "cues" or long hair or shaved heads, and more distinguishing in their character. To this Mr. Amis replied, expressing a suspicion that Mr. Olney was also poking fun at his bill. Nasby, of Wasco, came to the rescue, and urged that members should refrain their pesky amendments and let the bill go to a third reading and a square vote. This sort of thing, with innumerable points of order and defensive motions, went on for some time, when Amis moved to lay a pending amendment on the table. This, of course, was carried by "the friends of the bill." The Speaker (Lockhart in the Chair, Ben having run away, probably to find Whiteaker) decided that this motion carried to the table the whole subject matter. This was a stunner to Amis, who, finding that he himself had been most unkind to his progeny, moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment, the bill and [illegible] the table. The [illegible] by [illegible] reconsider [illegible] query by Mr. Whaley, the Speaker [illegible] the motion to reconsider was [illegible] a dead defeat of the bill. A [illegible] at this point was unbounded and most laughably wonderful to behold. His own paternal hand had dealt two fatal stabs unwittingly to his darling, his most particular pet. Amis is satisfied that the ways of parliamentary law are past finding out, and he protests that such ruling by the Chair would absolutely kill everything stone dead. The proceedings demonstrated that Amis hadn't the remotest idea of perpetrating a joke when he introduced the bill, and that a few of the Democrats who have some good sense, are perfectly willing to see the bill die by an overdose of medicine "taken by mistake," rather than to take the responsibility of killing it by direct means. Helm thought the bill was on the table sure enough, but could be taken up after awhile if the House should see fit.

Burris thought it was safe on the table, not killed, but simply in a sickly condition.

Lockhart's ruling will probably be overruled in the morning, and the bill be declared still alive. While Amis was gallantly driving and splashing around in the deep mire of parliamentary law, striving to find and rescue his first born, Dr. Alexander cruelly moved to adjourn, and his motion prevailed, much to the disgust of the afflicted relatives, and so the Whang-Doodle mourneth.

OTHER MATTERS.

The City Council will be called together tonight by Mayor Scott, for the purpose of extending an invitation to Gen. Sherman to visit this city and enjoy its hospitalities. The invitation probably would have been given in any event, but the treatment of the proposition by the Democracy in the House, this morning, has rendered it all the more certain.

The railroad track was completed to-day to the Fair Ground, and hereafter the stages and cars will connect at that place till the track shall be finished to the depot at Salem.

The Linn county Agricultural Fair is in full progress, and many of the people lately here have gone to visit it. It is reported that the attendance is very large and that the fair is greatly superior to any heretofore held in that county.

Emanuel Felix de Wimpffen, the General who has become famous by surrendering the French army at Sedan, has gone through the Algerian and provincial experience usual in the French army. He belonged to the Imperial Guard in the Crimea, and was made General for distinguished services in the Italian campaign. There is a Field Marshal of the same name in the service of Austria.

The Presbyterians have a large representation in Indianapolis. They have ten churches scattered throughout the city, and own property amounting to $340,000.

FRIDAY MORNING SEPT 23 1870

Something About a Particular Local Corporation

Senator Williams was defeated in the general election last June and in the Senatorial election that took place early in the present week at Salem. Nevertheless the Herald seems to have become conscious for the first time that he is not to be his successor. It therefore [illegible] as if that were a fresh [illegible] article we find the following brassy gem

> The main cause of his sudden departure from the living present was the fact as believed that he had sold himself completely to a particular local corporation And here we may remark parenthetically that we believe there are two or three other fellows in this State who regardless of the warning have contracted the same disease and will share the same fate

"The fact as believed that he had sold himself completely to a particular local corporation!" Every reader in view of what has recently been done at Salem will rub his eyes to make sure that he has read this aright Senator Williams proposed a measure to give Southern Oregon a railroad The Democratic party said the measure was a scheme in the interest of Holladay and declared that Williams had "sold himself to a particular local corporation" Then the Democrats elected a Legislature The first notable act of this body was to pass a joint resolution through both Houses commending the measure which Williams had introduced as the party had declared in the interest of Holladay and supporting in a more pronounced way than Williams had ever done the interests of this particular local corporation And then to crown all a Senator was elected pledged specifically to the plans of this particular local corporation and committed in the most positive manner against every rival interest The question now arises who is it that is sold to this local corporation? All that has ever been said against Williams on this subject could now be retorted with ten fold force upon Kelly And we suppose that the Herald from the last remark from that paper quoted above has this fact in view Col Kelly undoubtedly, is one of the two or three other fellows who have sold out to the aforesaid corporation and are on that account doomed to destruction and oblivion

Exclusion of Foreigners

To an attempt to prove that a State can exclude foreign passengers, and therefore that Oregon has the right and the constitutional power to prevent the landing of Chinese at her ports the Herald still devotes an occasional labor That paper is sorely puzzled about the rulings of the Supreme Court of the United States in the celebrated passenger cases, reported in VIIth Howard It attempts to quibble by saying that four Judges held that the power to exclude belongs to the States, while five held the opposite opinion This is not much of an argument in favor of its position It is simply an admission that the decision of the court is against it. But the Herald says there was no opinion delivered by the court, as a court. That is an error The court decided in unmistakable terms that the laws of New York and Massachusetts imposing a tax on foreign passengers were unconstitutional and void The five Judges constituting a majority of the court each furnished an opinion to this effect, and they all based their opinions on the common ground that such laws are an infringement on the constitutional power of commerce to regulate commerce that commerce means an intercourse of persons as well as importation of merchandise and therefore that a State cannot exclude persons coming from foreign countries by taxation or otherwise Massachusetts and New York did not attempt it further The whole subject is well settled, and no sound lawyer questions it

Mr Ladd ought to feel very happy over his success as a politician Here is a synopsis of his career during the last few months When the Democratic platform came out last March Mr Ladd declared against it He couldn't swallow repudiation A short time before the election a little accident befel a land grant he was expecting to receive. This at once made a vast change in his political principles Rather than lose the land grant he would prefer to repudiate the national debt Therefore he turned out and worked for the Democracy with all his might A Democratic Legislature was elected, (not however, by his efforts) and it has dealt his expected land grant a severer blow than ever Senator Williams did To get even on the Democratic party Mr. Ladd should now flop once more on the question of repudiation and throw his vast influence against that high toned Democratic doctrine

It is intimated by the Herald that Col Kelly's pledges were made simply to be broken It says they are empty buncombe "nothing but words" and "won't stand any strain at all". That is to say the Herald intimates that Col Kelly has tricked the Southern members promised them a thing he means not to perform and not to put too fine a point upon it has lied to them to get their votes This is the Herald's showing, not ours And so peculiar are the morals of that paper that it calls the success which Col Kelly has gained by such alleged means a "great victory." We don't say that the Herald speaks truly of the Senator elect and his intentions that is to be seen hereafter

The British Government has agreed to reimburse Canada for her actual war expenses and ascertained losses in the Fenian raids and will then make a demand upon the United States for indemnity placing her claims on this account in the same category as the Alabama claims As there is a very obvious difference in the cases our Government having employed all its power to prevent the invasion of Canadian soil and punished those who participated therein, while England made no effort to stop the depredations of the Alabama, fitted out and sailing from her ports—it is not easy to see what Great Britain expects to gain by such a demand

The Democratic party of Oregon without a dissenting voice plants itself on Ben Holladay's railroad platform, and elects a Senator expressly pledged to support his "monopoly," And so as Congressman Smith said in one of his letters against the Williams' amendment Holladay will have supreme control of the trade and transportation of the State and will rule us with a rod of iron And the Democratic party goes en masse for the measure which was to bring about this result and make a "rat-hole" of Portland

The great advantage of the Pengra road as a competing line against Ben Holladay was the subject of much talk by the Democracy hereabouts a short time ago We think it probable they will say little on that subject hereafter

If Col Kelly can respect himself if [illegible] he [illegible] himself, that he [illegible] the prospect of the people of Oregon [illegible] his own party The election of a Democratic Senator in [illegible] nothing that [illegible] place [illegible] an event which might be [illegible] would awaken some [illegible] in the party But nothing of the kind [illegible] to [illegible] Col Kelly [illegible] and [illegible] allow them to [illegible] any [illegible]

Nevertheless [illegible] Mr Holladay's [illegible] Col Kelly to give the pledges to which he subscribed For the man who was thus chained down to do the drudgery of Mr Holladay's [illegible] every Democratic member of the Legislature voted This party is the great enemy of [illegible] We shall see it now

One thing is certain viz Since Ben Holladay has succeeded in getting the present Legislature to approve [illegible] for railroad [illegible] the Democracy of the State that party is completely silenced on its favorite argument of "Holladay and the Railroad"

FROM SALEM

Destructive Fire—Sash Factory and other Buildings Burned—Loss $40,000 to $50,000

SALEM Sept 22 1870

A fire occurred here at about 4 o'clock this afternoon which destroyed the sash and door factory of Messrs Boothby & Stapleton D B Drake's iron foundry and machine shop a dwelling house owned by Mr Drake adjoining the foundry a blacksmith shop and a small barn at the rear of the sash factory The fire originated in the furnace of the sash factory and in less than a minute the flames filled the entire interior of the building and were bursting out through the roof windows and doorways By the time the engine arrived the fire had attacked the blacksmith shop standing between the factory and foundry and before a drop of water was thrown the foundry building was on fire the whole length of the north side and roof In less time than would be required to write this all the buildings were one mass of flames—the dwelling house took fire almost as soon and the barn very shortly after For a few minutes it seemed almost certain that several other buildings near by must also go, but the engines got to work and by strenuous exertions they were saved The loss to Boothby and Stapleton and Drake, is estimated at between $30 000 and $40,000 An immense amount of machinery, patterns, lumber and manufactured work was destroyed A portion of Mr Drake's machinery will be got out, but in a damaged condition The firemen are still engaged (6 P M) in cooling it down and dragging it out This is the most serious fire which has occurred in Salem for years

...National Guard.—It may not be inopportune at this time to call the attention of ... citizens to a few matters of fact in ... the present disadvantages to which the ... military organizations of this city are subjected. Brief Mention.—Gov. Grover has appointed Alex. Campbell Port Warden at this port. Gov. Woods never thought of making the Port Warden's position a political office.

Rev. John Rosenberg, Professor in the Bishop Scott Grammar School in this city, assumed control yesterday.

Captains Cole, Crosby and Wass are the only bar pilots in possession of a branch at this time we learn. Captains Gilman, Snow, Johnson and Reed have recently been re-licensed as river pilots.

The propeller California arrived from Victoria yesterday.

Mr. J. P. O. Lownsdale intends visiting "the States" this fall, and will leave here in a few days. He will take with him samples of Oregon productions, and desires all the information he can obtain relative to the resources and productive industry of the State, to impart to people who may be anxious to learn something of Oregon.

A private note from Canyon City informs us that our former fellow citizen, Eph. H. Day, expects to reside in Portland again soon. Eph's friends—and they are legion—will welcome him.

U. S. Marshal T. G. Young gives notice to all persons claiming the Louisa Simpson to appear and interpose their claims on the 7th of November.

Very strong northeast winds prevailed in this region all day yesterday, carrying dust in clouds everywhere. It really looked like San Francisco.

A rose bush twenty feet high and sixty feet across was cut down from a house on First street yesterday and carted off to be dumped as brush. The house, which is small, was almost covered out of sight by the bush.

The Tillamook schooner Belle, now at Seeding's wharf, brought as cargo produce, butter, eggs, etc., and several pairs of elk horn, hides, etc.

The California reports that the Hattie C. Besse sailed out to sea on the morning of the 2d, with fair winds, fully freighted for San Francisco.

Messrs. Quimby and Carson, members of the House from this county, returned to Salem yesterday. They have been home on leave of absence.

A burning flue at the Cosmopolitan Hotel caused some consternation at noon yesterday, but no damage.

Mr. Thomas Mountain is disabled on account of breaking three fingers on the left hand last Tuesday evening.

Passengers from San Francisco.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship California, left San Francisco for Portland yesterday. The following are passengers:

Edwin Russell and wife, Capt Wm Turnbull, D N Osgood, M Brown, Mrs M A Ford, daughter and son, Geo Hayne and family, Mrs Tilghman and 3 children, W M Moreland, Wm Rand, T B Hart, Simeon Davis, M Buxham, Frank I. Departure of the Oriflamme.—The North Pacific Transportation Company's steamship Oriflamme, Capt. Wm. Metzger, left this port for San Francisco at 5:30 P. M., yesterday, carrying a fair cargo of freight and passengers, as follows:

A. A. Bartlett, wife and son, Mrs Bettman and child, A Black, Mrs Black, Mrs Black, Mrs J H Knezie and 2 children, J R Foster, Col E F Hooker, Mrs W B Carter and 2 children, J H Frink and wife, Geo H Hughes, Wm Scothorn, A B Francis, H Hurst, J Hyman, Miss O Ring, Miss S Smith, Mrs Moller Colville and infant, J H Reynolds, T J Holmes, J A Stewart and wife, Maj F Werner, Dr D C Tuple, Wm Maycock, Miss Jennie Bell, J H Gilman, Samuel Miller, Jacob Freiding, Mrs Keil, Wm Nichol, L Barnstein, B Roofe, Wm Herman, W, F & Co.'s Messenger, and 25 in the steerage.

Disappointed.—Mr. H. G. Struve, who arrived from Vancouver last evening, en route to Puget Sound, informs us that the citizens of Vancouver had made great preparations to meet and welcome Gens. Sherman and Schofield who were to visit that place yesterday, overland, but were obliged to return to Portland from Switzler's landing, being unable to cross the Columbia. It was not only a disappointment to them but was equally so to the distinguished gentlemen whom they proposed honoring.

Ready to be Accepted.—Another section of twenty miles of the Oregon and California Railroad is ready for inspection by the United States Commissioners; in fact about thirty miles are now ready. We learn that the second twenty mile section will be inspected in a few days and the papers relating to the same forwarded to Washington.

Railroad Progress.—There is now in San Francisco, and afloat between that port and this, iron enough belonging to the Oregon and California Railroad Company to insure the completion of the road to Albany. We are informed that without doubt the cars will be able to run to Albany during the month of November.

Tugs and Pilots.—We understand that the Legislature will be asked to amend the pilot law so as to exempt a vessel from taking a pilot when she employs a tug to tow her up the river to this port. We think there is justice in this, and hope that the Legislature will consider the subject carefully and decide favorably.

Cheap Freights.—Freights were never so cheap to this port as at the present time. We understand that cargoes have been taken as low as $1 87½ per ton. This is too cheap to be a blessing to anybody. The competition grows out of rivalry between the packet lines. Steamer freights remain unchanged.

Fire Works.—Some of the grandest "fire works" ever seen in this vicinity attracted much attention at the head of Morrison street last night, in the burning woods on the mountain side west of King's place. Much timber that was valuable has no doubt been destroyed by these fires.

For Olympia.—John F. Caples, Esq., of this city, leaves this morning for Olympia, to take part as attorney in the trial of several litigated cases, transferred to that court from Clarke county, W. T.

Torches Lost.—A few brass torches, used on the evening of the reception of Gen. Sherman, yet remain to be returned. Be kind enough to leave the one you carried, at the Police head quarters, if you have not returned it.

Blown up.—The steamer Wasp, plying between this city and Vancouver, was yesterday twice driven upon the beach by the high winds which prevailed.

Afternoon Session.—The Bill of Beck & Waldman passed the Senate and will go through every house, that they have the best stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods which will be sold cheaper than that of any other house. Call and judge for yourself.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Sixth Biennial Session.

SENATE—Morning Session.

Salem, Thursday, Sept. 22, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 A. M., by President Fay.

The roll was called and all the members were recorded as present except Messrs. Powell, Patterson and Stout.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Barton of the M. E. Church, South.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

LABOR EXCHANGE.

On motion of Mr. C[illegible] the communication of the Labor Exchange was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

BILLS.

Mr. Hendershott introduced a bill to abolish the office of Adjutant General.

Mr. Burch introduced a bill to create a Land Commission.

Mr. Burch introduced a bill uniting the offices of Librarian, Supreme Court Clerk and Reporter.

Mr. Mosher introduced a bill to aid in the construction of a wagon road from Jackson to Baker county.

Also a bill regulating enclosures, and S. B. No. 23, to amend the law fixing times of holding courts, so that Judge Thayer can remain at the Supreme Court, instead of attending Court in Coos county.

Mr. Mosher had been requested to introduce this bill by one of the Supreme Judges, as there was unfinished business before them, and on his motion the rules were suspended and the bill read a second time.

The President suggested that the June term in Jackson county be stricken out, as there was no necessity for that term.

On the motion of Mr. Mosher the proposed amendment was made.

Mr. Mosher moved to suspend the rules and read a third time now.

Mr. Cornelius—This bill is in charge of the Senator from Douglas, but I should think that it should be engrossed.

The President—The services of Judge Thayer are almost imperatively needed here, and if this bill is not passed he will have to go to Coos county, although important business is pending from the Fourth District at the present time.

Mr. Cornelius—I have no objection, but the amendments may be overlooked.

The President—Not if stricken out.

The rules were suspended and the bill was read a third time.

Mr. Cochran inquired if this action postponing court affected matters now pending.

Mr. Mosher—As it lengthens the time, there is no ...guage.

Mr. Cochran—There is no notification of the officers in Coos provided for in this bill.

The President—A provision in our Constitution provides for adjourning court in the absence of the Judge. Coos is a very remote county, and it would be impossible to notify any one there in time.

Mr. Cochran doubted whether it would be more expedient for Judge Thayer to remain here or hold the appointed court in Coos county.

Mr. Mosher—It will only be a delay of two weeks, and the court will then be held as usual.

The President—There are cases of infinitely more importance than usual before the Supreme Court.

The bill passed. Ayes, 19; noes, none.

President Fay gave notice of a bill to amend the Code of civil procedure.

Mr. Trevitt gave notice of a Homestead bill. Also a bill for the relief of Wasco county.

The President had a communication from the House in which the Speaker had signed in the wrong place. It was referred to the Committee on Enrollments for correction.

Mr. Cochran inquired after the Insane Asylum Committee.

The President was ready to appoint the committee when the Senate hears from the House.

A message announcing the concurrence of the House in H. J. R. for printing joint rules. Also that the House had concurred in H. J. R. to raise a committee to consider the propriety of procuring suitable buildings for holding sessions of the Legislature.

The President stated that he had spoken several times to the Speaker of the House concerning the appointment of the Committee on Insane Asylum.

The President suggested to the Chairman of the Committee on Printing to hurry up the Printer, as House bills were being printed while Senate bills were left out in the cold.

Mr. Moores read from the newspaper reports the names of the Committee on the Insane, appointed by the Speaker of the House.

Mr. Burch—The Speaker told me this morning he had appointed the Committee.

The President had understood that the House had appointed five on their part.

Mr. Cornelius thought the action of the House illegal.

The President—The House, I judge, does business as it pleases, from the reports of yesterday.

Mr. Cochran—That is the reason the question was raised. I saw the published reports of the House and thought the message mislaid or lost by some means.

Mr. Cornelius read from the rules that messages should be delivered to the President.

The President—Hereafter that shall be the rule.

MR. LIEUALLEN IN THE CHAIR.

President Fay said the Clerk of the House had sent two messages to the Senate, and that the Senate had received neither of them. Mr. Burch had met the Doorkeeper of the House after the Senate had adjourned, inquiring what he should do with a message. Mr. President, I want the Sergeant-at-Arms, the Doorkeeper and Page to pay attention to what I say. There have been some complaints that ink-stands have been stolen, and that papers are not delivered until half past nine in the morning. Hereafter keep all persons except members and those invited by them, and officials, without the bar.

A message was received from the House announcing that the House had adopted H. J. R. No. 10. This resolution is amendatory of H. J. R. No. 5, increasing on the part of the House joint committee to visit the Insane Asylum.

Mr. Baldwin moved to amend the resolution increasing the Committee on the part of the Senate to five.

Mr. Cornelius remarked that the House had passed a H. J. R. and the Senate had concurred, and this should be a different resolution.

The President—This is a different resolution, and as the question is an open one, it is proper as an amendment.

At the request of Mr. Trevitt, the resolution was read.

Mr. Baldwin—The House has not denied the Senate the privilege of enlarging the Committee on the part of the Senate. Doubtless we were expected to do so.

Mr. Hendershott—It looks as if the House were dictating terms to the Senate.

The President—There are two courses we can pursue, either enlarge the committee on the part of the Senate or refuse the House amendment.

Mr. Cochran did not doubt the House expected the Senate to increase the number of Senators on the committee.

Mr. Thompson—It looks as if there were two separate resolutions, Nos. 5 and 10, not on the same question, but one providing for taking care of, while the other was for a visiting committee.

The President—The resolution No. 5 is amended by the resolution No. 10.

Mr. Cornelius doubted the propriety of amending a resolution as this does. A bill having passed both Houses could in accordance with this custom be amended the day after its passage.

The President—Supplemental legislation is proper.

Mr. Baldwin thought a bill might be superseded by another act passed afterward.

Mr. Cornelius proposed to amend the resolution by inserting five on the part of each House.

Mr. Baldwin accepted the amendment, and the motion as amended prevailed.

Mr. Cornelius again raised a point of order as to the propriety of the action of the House and Senate in amending a bill that had passed both Houses.

Mr. Burch sustained the President in ruling on amendments in order, and stated the rule to be that either House might amend before the act had been signed, and that this resolution had not been engrossed.

The Senate concurred in the House amendment—ayes, 12, noes, 5—after which the Senate adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session.

The roll was called, and all the Senators were recorded as present except Messrs. Stout, Patterson and Perabaker.

BILLS.

Mr. Hoult, from the committee on Counties, reported S. B. No. 8, fee bill with amendment giving the Assessor $5 per diem, instead of $3 as at present, and further providing that the bill should not take effect until July, 1872, so that the reduction of fees does not affect officers elect.

The report was received and, on motion of Mr. Trevitt, referred to the committee of the Whole Senate.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

S. B. No. 9, amending the Road law, was read, and on motion of Mr. Burch referred to the committee on Roads and Highways.

S. B. No. 11, to provide for a uniform course of instruction in this State, was read, and on the motion of Mr. Mosher referred to the committee on Education.

S. B. No. 13, allowing two per cent per month, was read, and on the motion of Mr. Burch referred to the committee on Judiciary.

S. B. No. 15, to amend the law relating to assessments exempting endowments from taxation, was read, and on motion of Mr. Cornelius referred to a special committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Cornelius, Cochran and Moores.

The President announced a message from the Governor.

EXECUTIVE MESSAGE.

Gentlemen—I herewith transmit the report of the Board of Commissioners of the Agricultural College lands, which should have been and I was submitted to my predecessor, but not referred to by him in his last message. In addition to the amount allowed by the Act of October 27, 1868, for per diem pay to the Commissioners, I think it would be but just to provide compensation for necessary actual expenses of the Board while in performance of their official duties, including transportation and guide.

(Signed) L. F. GROVER, Governor of Oregon.

The report is long and will not here be given in full. Most of the lands were located in Jackson county, on Lost and Sprague rivers, Goose Lake and Chewaukan and other valleys in that region; a small quantity in Lane county, near the military road. All the lands, according to the report, are admirably adapted to agricultural and pasture purposes. The whole ninety thousand acres to which the State is entitled, except 92 22-100 acres, has been located. The Commissioners were to take into consideration the further organization and perfection of a plan for the permanent establishment of a college in accordance with the laws of Congress and report to the Governor by the first day of August, 1870. The Commissioners, after mature deliberation in view of all the facts, are of the opinion that it would be better to continue for the next two years the arrangement with Corvallis College, and that Commissioners be appointed by the next Legislature to select a permanent location for the college and prepare plans for its permanent establishment.

After the reading of the message and the report of the Commissioners, Mr. Trevitt inquired what had become of the Governor's message. He thought it should have been referred.

President Fay—The delay of the State Printer is inexcusable. He should be able to print as soon as the newspapers.

Mr. Moores—The old printer informed me he had printed the message before its delivery, as he believed it to be part of his duty.

On motion of Mr. Baldwin 150 copies of the Governor's Message received to-day with accompanying report, were ordered printed.

Mr. Trevitt, in defence of the State Printer, stated that the Sergeant-at-Arms had informed him that the message and inaugural were in the hands of the Secretary of State.

MESSAGES.

A message was received from the House announcing that the House had receded from its amendment to S. B. No. 3, giving officers the same amount of stamps as members, and that the House had passed the bill as it was introduced in the Senate. It authorizes the Secretary of State to furnish each member of the Legislature with three dollars' worth of postage stamps.

Also a message that the House had concurred in Senate amendment to H. J. R. No. 10.

GENERAL SHERMAN.

Also H. J. R. No. 11, inviting General Sherman to visit the Capital, [illegible] Senate.

Mr. Baldwin moved to concur.

Mr. Mosher, believing the civil should be superior to the military, should vote against giving a reception to a military officer, whose only claim is service in the late war. The sooner the war was forgotten the better, and he was not disposed to revive over battle-fields or Antietam or any battle of that [illegible] would be ... the memories of that [illegible] by receptions given to the officers, whether federal or rebel, who had commanded on either side.

Mr. Cochran was [illegible] ... but two years ago we gave a reception to General Crook for services in the [illegible] of Oregon. It would be unjust to [illegible] and the ... are now visiting Oregon to single Gen. Sherman for special attention. There were other reasons. He thought it would not honor the Senate ... to receive ... Sherman and he did not want to ... any army officer. There were ... in ... who were afraid of ... Gen. Sherman had come here on military business and he hoped the General would attend to that line of business, and that no great trouble would be taken concerning his reception.

Mr. Baldwin had moved ... to bring the resolution before the Senate. He believed the civil authority paramount to the military, and if any one else had moved the ... on the resolution he would have voted no.

The ayes were Messrs. Baldwin, Brown of Marion, Burch, Cornelius, Moores, Powell, Thompson, Trevitt, Watts and Witham—10.

The noes were Messrs. Brown of Baker, Cochran, Crawford, Hendershott, Hoult, Huntley, Lieuallen, Mosher, and Mr. President—9.

So the resolution was lost, the Constitution requiring a majority of the whole Senate to pass a joint resolution.

BILL—MESSAGE—INAUGURAL.

On motion of Mr. Trevitt, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Senator Trevitt in the Chair.

After considering S. B. No. 8, the message of Gov. Woods and the inaugural of Gov. Grover, the committee rose and recommended S. B. No. 8 be amended by reducing the fees of Clerks and Sheriffs still lower in all the counties east of the mountains but Wasco, from its provisions, and also excepting Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Tillamook, Clatsop, Columbia and Benton counties from the reduction as to the remaining counties. It was recommended to pass the bill.

The different portions of Gov. Woods' message was referred to appropriate committees, as was also Gov. Grover's inaugural address.

The President announced the Committee on Insane Asylum: Messrs. Baldwin, Crawford, Thompson, Trevitt and Witham.

The President—As there is no joint committee to visit the Penitentiary, it might be well to raise a joint committee for that purpose.

On motion of Mr. Thompson the amendments to S. B. No. 8 were adopted, and on motion of Mr. Trevitt, ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

A Joint resolution offered by Mr. Hendershott, providing for a committee of three on the part of each House, was adopted, and Messrs. Hendershott, Burch and Watts were appointed.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 10 A. M.

HOUSE—Morning Session.

Salem, Thursday, Sept. 22, 1870.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M. by the Speaker, all the members being present except Messrs. Harrison, Elkins and Olney.

Prayer by the Rev. Father Gowens, of the Catholic Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

WELCOME TO GEN. SHERMAN.

Mr. Savage, from the Committee on Military Affairs reported the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, By the House, the Senate concurring, that we welcome W. T. Sherman, General of the United States, to our State, and invite him and his staff to visit the Capital at his leisure.

COOS BAY WAGON ROAD.

Mr. Burnett, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported amendments to H. B. No. 2, an act to confirm a grant of land to the Coos Bay wagon road. The amendment requires the company to have a direct route surveyed, and prescribes the manner in which it shall be received.

Mr. Hare thought the bill an important one, and that it should be considered carefully. He therefore moved to refer it to the Committee of the Whole.

The motion was withdrawn and the amendments to the bill were ordered printed.

EXEMPTING PROPERTY FROM TAXATION.

Mr. Helm, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back House Bill No. 4, an act to amend section 3 of chapter 2 of the general laws, introduced by Mr. Amis, recommending its indefinite postponement.

Mr. Amis explained that the bill was designed to carry out more fully the object of the original law which exempts from taxation $300 worth of personal property for each householder. He argued that there should be a distinction made between those who are in affluent circumstances and those who are poor, and also between those who have but one or two children and those who have several. He cited the example of other States where exemptions similar to those made in the bill are in force. It is in accordance with the principle laid down in Jefferson that legislation should be designed especially for the poor. The rich do not need so much legislation.

Mr. Helm did not doubt that if the Jeffersonian doctrine were fully carried out nothing should be exempt. It was formerly so in Illinois. If this were the case here the poor man who has but little in his house would have but a small tax to pay, while the rich man whose house is elegantly furnished would have the greater tax to pay. He instanced the case of two men worth $1,000 each in personal property. If one had a wife and no children he would have to pay a tax on $500, while if his neighbor had a wife and eight children his property would be all exempt. This he thought would be very unfair.

Mr. Whaley said he thought that Mr. Amis' bill was based upon the supposition that the poor man would have more children than the rich man, but this might not always be so. He thought it would be better to repeal the exemption altogether than to increase it.

Mr. Amis urged the merits of the bill.

Mr. Hare regarded the bill as a good one, and expressed himself opposed to disposing of any bill respectfully presented in so unceremonious a manner. He hoped to see the House adopt a practical plan of business.

Mr. Starkweather observed that as a man grows older in years his property increases, as a general rule, in value, and his children, instead of being a detriment, are an advantage to him. He thought it better to indefinitely postpone the bill in order to save the time of the House.

Mr. Dorris corrected the reference made by Mr. Amis to the law in California. In that State $1,000 worth of property is exempt from execution, but not from taxation.

Mr. Whiteaker moved to lay on the table.

The motion prevailed; ayes 56, noes 5.

POSTAGE STAMPS—COURT TERMS.

A message from the Senate announced the refusal of that body to concur in the amendment made by the House, extending to the officers of the Legislature the provisions of the Senate bill to allow three dollars to each member.

Mr. Olney—I move to recede from the House amendment.

Mr. Paquet—I move to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. Olney—That will kill the bill.

Mr. Paquet—That is what I wish to do.

The motion failed, and Mr. Olney's motion was agreed to.

The Message also announced the passage of a bill to amend an act entitled, "An Act to provide for the time and places of holding the Supreme and Circuit Courts."

Mr. Whiteaker—I am informed that unless the bill passes immediately one of the Judges of the Supreme Court will have to leave immediately, in order to hold court in Coos and Curry counties.

The bill changes the court term in Coos county from the 1st to the 3d Monday in October.

The rules were suspended and the bill read a second time.

Mr. Lockhart said he would be as willing to accommodate Judge Thayer as anybody, but to make the change immediately would cost the counties at least one thousand dollars and perhaps five thousand. There are parties that are residents of San Francisco who will be on hand on the 1st Monday in October to attend the Court, and under the changed law it will be necessary for them to delay at great expense. He moved to amend so as to permit the bill to take effect as usual.

Mr. Dorris thought all the citizens of Oregon were interested in having Judge Thayer attend the session of the Supreme Court, and he hoped the bill would pass as it came from the Senate.

Pending the consideration of the bill, at 12 o'clock M. the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House met at 2 o'clock P. M., the Speaker in the chair.

COMMITTEE ON INSANE ASYLUM INCREASED.

A message from the Senate announced that the Senate had adopted an amendment to the resolution relative to a Committee on the Insane Asylum, increasing the committee to five from each House.

The House concurred in the amendment.

CHANGING TERMS OF COURTS.

The consideration of Senate Bill No. 23, fixing the terms of the Supreme and District Courts, was resumed.

Mr. Dorris thought the bill would not cost the counties of the Second District more than $50, as it would only be necessary that the Sheriff should issue new notices to the jurors.

Mr. Lockhart said the responsibility of any inconvenience should rest upon the Supreme Court, if the court wished to hold a long term.

Mr. Dunbar would vote for the amendment. He thought the Legislature should be careful not to impose upon the outside and sparsely populated counties.

Mr. Helm asked how long it would take to notify the Sheriff of Coos county by telegraph to the Sheriff of Douglas county, with instructions to forward the notification.

Mr. Lockhart—If you should provide means to hire an expressman, the notification might be sent in a few days.

The motion prevailed—25 ayes, to 19 noes.

The bill was read a third time under suspension of the rules and rejected—21 ayes to 22 noes.

[illegible]

Mr. Lockhart [illegible] resolution to exempt Mr. Olney from the operation of the rule which requires members on addressing the chair to arise.

Mr. Lockhart—It is strictly in accordance with Parliamentary usage to extend such privileges when proper. We can all see with what pain the gentleman from Clatsop is able to arise. I hope that on account of his infirmities the resolution will be adopted.

The resolution passed unanimously.

Mr. Olney—I move that the bill be referred to a committee of the whole House.

Mr. Hare—I do not know how the records will look. I think a committee of two had better be appointed to investigate the question as to how that bill ever got into the possession of the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Helm—I will explain. It was first referred to a select committee. That committee reported amendments to the bill, and the amendments with the bill were referred to the Judiciary Committee. Of course as the bill was in the possession of the committee it could not be acted upon by the House.

Mr. Hare—I recollect distinctly that on the motion of the gentleman from Clatsop it was the special order for Tuesday last ... I think the Journals of the House show that fact and I think that is the condition of the bill?

REFUSAL TO WELCOME GEN. SHERMAN.

A message from the Senate announced the refusal of that body to concur in the House Joint resolution welcoming Gen. Sherman to the State, and inviting him to visit the Capital at his convenience.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

Mr. Hunter gave notice of a bill for the relief of Union county.

Mr. Helm gave notice of a bill relating to ferry and ferry license.

Also of a bill for the relief of John Tuper and Jonathan Needham.

Mr. Thompson gave notice of a bill for the relief of Union county.

Mr. Paquet introduced a bill relating to granting licenses to sell spirituous liquors. It requires a vote to be taken at each general election as to whether license shall be granted or not, and no person to be allowed to sell liquors without the assent of a majority of the legal voters of the town or ward in which he lives. Ordered printed.

Mr. Helm introduced a bill to pay B. F. Bonham $643 57, balance due on salary as Territorial and State Treasurer. Ordered printed.

Also a bill for an act supplementary to an act approved October 26, 1862, entitled an act to regulate proceeding and to perpetuate testimony.

COMMITTEE ON PENITENTIARY.

The Speaker announced a committee of one from each county, with Mr. Hunter as Chairman, to visit the Penitentiary.

A Chapter of Facts.

Space is valuable in a newspaper, and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts, important to the public, into a small compass. Those facts refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is, and what it will do. In the first place then, the article is a stimulant, tonic and alterative, consisting of a combination of absolutely pure spirituous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician. These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the general system, and tones, regulates and controls the stomach, the bowels, the liver and the minor secretive organs.

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done. The case of dyspepsia, or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure is yet to be heard from, and the same may be said of bilious disorders, intermittent fever, nervous affections, general debility, constipation, sick headache, mental despondency and the peculiar complaints and disabilities to which the feeble are subject. It purifies all the fluids of the body, including the blood and the gentle stimulus which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction. This is a chapter of facts which readers, for their own sakes, should mark and remember.

This remedy does not simply relieve for a short time, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Nasal Catarrh, and I will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. "Cold in the head" and Catarrhal Headache are cured with a few applications. If you have a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, stopping up of the nose at times, partial loss of the sense of smell, taste or hearing, eyes watering or weak, feel dull, have pain or pressure in the head, you may rest assured that you have Catarrh. Thousands annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in Consumption and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive or less understood by physicians. I will send my pamphlet on Catarrh to any address free. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is now

SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of 60 cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. Remember that this private Stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

Medical Madness.—Let us hope that the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation and female debility is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is re-produced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Legal tender [illegible]

[illegible]

Trade [illegible] wholesale and jobbing markets. Wheat is coming in freely in wagons, and readily disposed of at quotations [illegible]. Business in the line of agricultural goods is [illegible]. Plows and [illegible] the fall season [illegible].

In the retail family market there is everything that the epicurean could desire, and the prices asked place things within the reach of the most ordinary. The vessel now in port from Honolulu supplied the market with a luxuriant and abundant stock of tropical fruits, which, taken in connection with the supply of our own home productions, places the family markets of Portland to-day high in the estimation of an appreciative public. Game is in abundant supply, and of the finest quality. Fish in unexcelled good order, is also abundant.

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified, that the Concert is postponed until Monday, October 31st, 1870.

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 10, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of gifts. They will be as heretofore advertised, to wit: 628 gifts amounting in all to $500,000 gold.

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco, will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers, on the 1st November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d, 1870 at the Office, No. 318 California Street, to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

SECURE A HOME!!

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened, and a large number of Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will give a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are dependent for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them,) the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 71 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots, along the river front. The shares number 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after deducting the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $100 or $400 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen, therefore, that everything is co-operative, and all interests mutual. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property, by some chance, should depreciate far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself; but considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity, for the last year or two, it seems hardly possible for values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares representing three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and votes determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner. The buyers of shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the assessments as above, the holder is entitled to his certificate and his proportion of all the profits accrued from all sources. No officer of the Association receives any pay for services except the Secretary, who gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 90 feet above the water. There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam soil, and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest, undivided, with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes, and one homestead—the "Riverside" just south of East Portland—has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is still forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H, which has already been described, with that of the east. This last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley, which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is as clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association proposes to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
